

Curriculum Vitae

Personal Data

Name Masatoshi Tagawa

Current Position

Head, Division of Pathology and Cell Therapy, Chiba Cancer Center Research Institute
Chiba, Japan
Professor, Department of Molecular Biology & Oncology, Graduate School of Medicine,
Chiba University, Chiba, Japan

Educational Background and Professional Experiences

March 1979

Graduated with M.D. from Chiba University, School of Medicine, Japan

April 1979 - March 1980

Resident in the Department of Internal Medicine (II), Chiba University Hospital

May 1979

Passed the National Boards Examination and obtained a license to practice medicine

April 1980 - March 1984

Graduate course in the Department of Immunology, Chiba University, School of Medicine (under Prof. Masaru Taniguchi and Dr. Yoshiaki Fujii, Director of the Department of Biochemistry, Cancer Institute, Tokyo), majoring in cellular immunology, biochemistry and molecular biology

March 1984

Awarded Ph.D.

April 1984 - March 1985

Research Associate in the Department of Immunology, Chiba University, School of Medicine

April 1985 - March 1987

Postdoctoral Fellow in the Department of Genetics, Stanford University, Stanford,
CA, USA (Prof. Leonard A. Herzenberg)

April 1987 - June 1990

Research Associate in the Department of Immunology, Chiba University, School of Medicine

July 1990 - June 1991

Clinical Fellow in the National Institute of Neurology and Psychiatry

July 1991 - March 1997

Associate Professor in the Department of Biochemistry, Chiba University, School of Medicine

April 1997 – Present

Head, Division of Pathology and Cell Therapy, Chiba Cancer Center Research Institute

April 2005 - Present

Professor, Department of Molecular Biology & Oncology, Graduate School of Medicine, Chiba University

Qualification

VQE (Visa Qualification Examination) on ECFMG (Educational Council for Foreign Medical Graduate, USA), October 1980

Current Professional Position

- Council for Japan Society Gene Therapy
- Council and Vice President Elect for International Society for Cell and Gene Therapy of Cancer

Editorial Board

Biological Procedures Online